

French-American Networking Event in Science & Technology: NEST 2014

July 1, 2014

Part I: Inserm's 50th Anniversary Workshop

1:30-2:00pm	Arrival of Participants
2:00-2:05pm	Introduction Minh-Hà Pham , Scientific Counselor, Embassy of France Mireille Guyader , Director Inserm-USA Office
2:05-2:30pm	Inserm : 50 years of research in Health and Life Sciences Pascal Griset , Professor at University Paris-Sorbonne, historian, and co-author with Jean-François Picard of the book "Au cœur du vivant- 50 ans de l'Inserm"
2:30-3:30pm	What is Inserm today? Thierry Damerval , Director General, "Inserm: The French research organization at the Heart of Health and Life Sciences" Pascale Augé , CEO, "Inserm Transfert: Nurturing Innovation in Human Health"
3:30-4:00pm	Coffee Break
4:00-5:50pm	Inserm-USA Partnerships 4:00-5:00pm Session 1: US Partners' Perspectives Nora Volkow, MD , Director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) and Inserm International Prize 2009 awardee George Koob, PhD , Director of the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA), and director of an Inserm International Associated Laboratory Linda Fried, MD PhD , Dean, Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health, Senior Vice President Columbia University Medical Center 5:00-5:30pm Session 2: US-Inserm Collaborative Experiences Emiliana Borrelli, PhD , Professor of Microbiology & Molecular Genetics at UC Irvine, CA and Director of the Inserm-UC Irvine International Joint Research Unit Richard Simerly, PhD , Professor of Pediatrics and Biological Sciences, Deputy Director Saban Research Institute, Children's Hospital Los Angeles, USC Jacques Galipeau, MD, FRCP(C) Professor of Hematology and Medical Oncology and Pediatrics, Emory University, Atlanta

Roger Hajjar, MD, Arthur & Janet Ross Professor of Medicine, Director, Cardiovascular Research Center, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, NYC
Rachel Mak-McCully, Chateaubriand Laureate 2012

5:30-5:50pm: Panel Discussion: International Cooperation with Inserm in an Evolving Global Landscape

Participants: All speakers from Sessions 1 & 2
Moderator : Minh-Hà Pham

5:50-6:00pm	Closing Remarks Thierry Damerval , Director General of Inserm
6:00-6:30pm	Exhibition “Inserm’s 50th Anniversary” Maison Française, Embassy of France

Part II: NEST Lecture & Reception

6:00-6:30pm	Arrival of NEST Participants Exhibition “Inserm’s 50 th Anniversary,” Maison Française, Embassy of France
6:30pm	Welcome Address François Delattre , Ambassador of France in the United States
6:35-6:45pm	Signature of Cooperation Agreement Agreement between Inserm and the Embassy of France regarding the Chateaubriand Fellowship in Science
6:45-7:30pm	Nathaniel Comfort , PhD, Department of the History of Medicine, The Johns Hopkins University, “How personal is personalized medicine? The hope, hype, and history of the current revolution in healthcare”
7:30-9:30pm	Reception and Networking